

COVID-19 Disclaimer

As the worldwide COVID-19 coronavirus pandemic remains ongoing, travel arrangements, at any time before or during travel, may be interrupted, changed or cancelled by the travel vendor(s) providing them, a government entity or other third party over which Senator Travel has no control. In addition, the travel vendors' own cancellation, rebooking and refund policies, subject to any applicable law that is now or may later be in effect, will govern the travelers' rights and remedies, including the right to receive a refund.

As to travel insurance, which we generally recommend travelers purchase, the terms of the policy will dictate whether, and to what extent, coverage for any financial loss may exist under the circumstances.

Travelers are advised to read closely all of the documents provided by the travel vendor(s) (including those posted on its website) and, as the travel date approaches, to use all available resources to remain informed regarding the COVID-19 circumstances and regulations in effect in the destination and return locations.

If you wish additional information on suggestions for remaining informed about traveling during the COVID-19 pandemic, contact your travel advisor for further guidance.
